

SOCIAL ENTERPRISE

Business Link

Don't miss these FREE one-day workshops for voluntary organisations and newly started social enterprises

Starting in Social Enterprise

These workshops are suitable for:

- Newly started social enterprises
- Voluntary organisations and charities wishing to consider developing a social enterprise
- Social enterprises in their first year of trading

The workshop is designed to help your organisation develop good management processes as you identify trading opportunities either for the first time or as an additional activity to current delivery.

Workshops are small and informal, and provide a great opportunity to share ideas and experiences with others.
