Half Day Briefing Sessions in London, Leeds &amp; Bristol RSL &amp; Non-RSL Providers of Services to Vulnerable People <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• The contractual consequences of losing or gaining Supporting People contracts</li> <li>• The consequences of increased scrutiny and Judicial Review of RSL decisions for RSLs, their agency partners and their tenants as a consequence of the "Weaver" judgement</li> <li>• The consequences of changes to services to residents (e.g. the withdrawal of resident wardens in sheltered schemes)</li> <li>• Challenging decisions by local authorities to withdraw contracts to provide services</li> <li>• Protecting &amp; enhancing service charges</li> </ul>	Half Day (AM 09.30-12.30) There are many changes facing providers of services to vulnerable client groups within Supporting People funded &amp; other services across the country. Public expenditure cuts, the "mainstreaming" of Supporting People &amp; the recent ruling which established that RSLs are Public Bodies places additional scrutiny on their actions &amp; the position of their agency partners. The outcomes for this event will be that Providers can: Organise themselves for the retendering of their services. Examine how to deal with contractual &amp; financial consequences and obligations to users of services and 3rd parties (such as agency partners and RSLs) arising from changes to, losses of or gaining of contracts. Identify where there may be options for legal redress when contracts are lost. Identify alternative &amp; revised revenue streams.
